

HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

Finishing touches

Add some final polish to your presents with pretty holiday wrapping papers (D, $4.29 to $9.99, www.containerstore.com), plus shiny tinsel tape (E, $6, www.worldwidedred.com/tinseltape) that will make your gift boxes sparkle.

Keep holiday goodies and decorations organized, or delight uber-organized friends with a Label Maker with Case (C, $49, www.containerstore.com), also from the Container Store.

Brookstone's wireless WeatherCast 5-Day Forecaster with Alarm Clock (F, $100, www.brookstone.com), the new iPod Touch (G, $299, www.apple.com) and the pocket-sized digital photo album WalletPix (H, $29.99, major mass retailers) all make fantastic stocking stuffers for the gadget lover on your list. All three gizmos are fresh on the market, fun and easy-to-use.

A bottle of Greg Norman Estates Australian Sparkling Chardonnay Pinot Noir (B, $16, www.gregnormanestateswine.com) makes a great host gift for those celebrating on a budget and it's perfect for pouring at New Year's brunch.

Smith and Hawkin's Paperwhites in Twig Basket (A, $42, www.smithandhawkin.com) also makes a lovely host gift with fragrant flowers that are easy to grow for novices and green thumbs alike.
